

(A very sober looking HISTORIAN with horn rimmed glasses enters. A map of England appears on the Protocullis with skulls in various places, like a Medieval weather map. If projection is used, this may be animated.)

England 932 A.D. A kingdom divided. To the West the Anglo-Saxons, to the East the French. Above nothing but Celts and some people from Scotland. In Gwynned, Powys, and Dyfed - Plague. In the kingdoms of Wessex, Sussex, and Essex and Kent - Plague. In Mercia and the two Anglias - Plague: with a 50% chance of pestilence and famine coming out of the Northeast at twelve miles per hour. Legend tells of an extraordinary leader, who arose from the chaos, to unite a troubled kingdom,....

...A man with a vision who gathered Knights together in a Holy Quest. This man was Arthur, King of the Britons. For this was England.
