

Soundlings Improv Workshop 2019

Back by Popular Demand and increased to 8 Evenings!

8-week course – Tuesday Evenings 7:00 – 9:30 pm

When: February 5, 12, 19, 26, March 5, 12, 19, 26, 2019

Where: Griffin Gallery at The Roxy

Instructed by Enio Mascherin

Tap into your intuitively funny nature! More than just fun and entertaining, improvisation is gaining interest and appreciation for its positive impact on teamwork skills and the creative thinking process.

- Learn to play well with others.
- This workshop will introduce you to the fundamental and advanced concepts and exercises used by The Second City Toronto and TheatreSports.
- No improv or theatre experience is necessary to enjoy this workshop.
- Participants should be prepared to perform with, and for, your classmates.

Enio Mascherin is the Creative Director for a local Owen Sound advertising agency. He was a founding member of the Toronto TheatreSports movement and a Director of The Second City Training Centre Toronto. Enio has taught Improvisation as part of the Seneca College Theatre Program and at The Haliburton School of Arts. He also collaborated with The Debajehmujig Theatre to create the first Native Improv Group “The Best Medicine.”

Price: $80.00 for Adult Members, $140.00 for non-members

During regular box office hours, staff can be reached at 519.371.2833

- This session is comprised of 8 classes. All classes will run from 7-9:30 p.m. on Tuesday evenings unless otherwise specified below.
- Most classes will be held at The Roxy Theatre in the Griffin Gallery; some classes may be held at The Harmony Centre.
- Please check the email address you provided regularly for location changes or other announcements.
- There are no refunds or make up classes for classes missed by the student. In the event of weather cancellations or cancellations by the instructor, a makeup class date will be offered.
- We require a minimum of 10 participants for each session to run. The cap for each class is 20.
