

Roxy Young Company Commitment Declaration

1. Participant Commitment

The Roxy Young Company (RYC) has a requirement that, in order to participate in the program, participants must attend all* scheduled sessions. We balance the RYC program considering each participant's abilities and as a RYC participant, your attendance is essential for planning and executing a quality live theatre production. There needs to be a commitment to your theatre team and to the other participants.

If you have a direct weekly time conflict with the RYC schedule, you should not register for the program. The time conflict will prevent you from participating with your fellow troupe mates, limiting the final quality of the production; as such, you will be unable to participate in the final production.

Code of Conduct

1. Everyone will respect the rights and feelings of the other participants.
2. Participants are expected to pay attention to and follow the Directors so that they can get the most out of their time here.
3. Participants will respect the theatre facilities, costumes, props, sets, and all other Roxy Theatre property. They will pick up after themselves and work to keep the theatre clean.
4. Participants will show up to rehearsals, classes and performances on-time and ready to get to work with all necessary props, costumes, notes or scripts.
5. Discrimination or bullying on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, national origin, disability, or on any other basis, is never allowed.

2. Parent/Caregiver Commitment

Parents/Caregivers are expected to contribute in the following ways:

- Support participants to arrive on time and be prepared to participate
- Volunteer with at least one aspect of the program:
  - Show support (backstage, ticket sales, bar, costumes, props, set build, usher, lighting)
  - Fundraising support
- Monitor health and ensure participants adhere to daily COVID screening
- Support participants at home with rehearsals
- Support access and quiet space for Virtual programming if needed

The Roxy Young Program is part of the Owen Sound Little Theatre. As such, you represent our organization. Thus, we hope that our Young Company members represent us to the best of their ability.

I, _____, wishing to be part of The Roxy Young Company, do hereby advise that I have read the required commitments above and hereby agree to abide by the requirements as indicated.
